BIRDS OF THE CURRUMBIN ESTUARY II

On Wednesday 22 February the 2012 Guest Speaker Nights program will begin, with a brand new talk on the Birds of Currumbin Estuary from the one and only George Lewis.

Always a favourite with Gecko members and guests, George's talks, accompanied by his high quality photographs, are very informative and help us become better acquainted with many of our local bird species.

George's talks also provide us with a fantastic opportunity to discover the high ecological significance of Currumbin Estuary and enhance the experience of walking through Tarrabora Reserve and the adjoining Beree Badalla Boardwalk.

Copies of George's latest 'Birds of Currumbin Estuary' book will be available for purchase on the night with over 80 species photographed.

George recommends those who own a copy of the first book bring it along for discussion and reference.

See you there on the night to brush-up on your bird identification skills and learn some interesting new facts at the same time!

Join us on Wednesday 22nd February, upstairs at Gecko House, 139 Duringan St, Currumbin for drinks and snacks from 6:30pm, then George's presentation from 7 to 8. BYO questions.
