

Looking for an event coordinator extraordinaire!

Gecko – Gold Coast and Hinterland Environment Council is looking for an exceptional event professional to coordinate Gold Coast Green Week, sustainability festival in June. A successful candidate is required to liaise with old and new participants and nurture the partnerships from beginning until the end, produce promotional material including the festival guide, oversee a team of student interns and volunteers.

We are looking for a person with experience in event management, possess impeccable communication and interpersonal skills and experience / understanding of the not-for-profit sector. We need you to be a goal orientated creative thinker with attention to detail and we want you to love the environment like we do.

Please note that this is a contract position and a successful candidate is required to work on their own ABN. This position starts immediately so get your application in today!

For further information and to submit your application please contact us at events@gecko.org.au.