

| NAME                                       | CATEGORY                 | CITATION  |
|--|--------------------------|---|
| Ben Kober                                  | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For his leadership in community and educational projects and partnerships which aim to restore the Numinbah Valley as the natural green corridor linking Springbrook and Lamington National Park.   |
| Nicole Archer                              | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For her enthusiastic service to the environment through Wildlife Queensland including committee responsibilities and advocacy in campaigning to uphold the cardinal principal of national park.   |
| Skye Rodger                                | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For inspiring students and the wider school communities to embrace sustainability principles in their everyday lives.   |
| Kate Baldry                                | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For championing community education and involvement in climate change action through Climate Community Nights and School Climate Strikes.   |
| Gwenda Felmingham                          | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For her tireless devotion in guarding the environmental and social sustainability of Oxenford and surrounding areas.  |
| Sarah McCulloch                            | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For her outstanding involvement for over 5 years with Humpbacks & Highrises whale research team.  |
| Friends of Pine Ridge Conservation Reserve | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For their enthusiastic involvement in protecting the values of Pine Ridge Conservation Park and sharing special features with the community.  |
| Skye Shannon                               | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For her continuous involvement with wildlife rescues and environmental education in her community.  |
| Tony Potter                                | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For his outstanding leadership in guarding the environmental and social sustainability of Oxenford and surrounding areas.   |
| Rob Richards                               | Leaf-Tailed Gecko 2022   | For his enthusiastic leadership of Friends of Burleigh Heads National Park for many years and protecting the environmental values of the local area.  |
| Kalindi Brennan                            | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her active leadership in environmental education and sustainability initiatives and inspiring students and the wider community over many years.   |
| Rowena Biby                                | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her devotion over many years to the protection of Black Swan Lake including research, advocacy, water testing and restoration activities.   |
| Sonya Underdahl                            | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her dynamic advocacy and research into the protection of the values of our national parks and championing sustainable, low-impact ecotourism.   |
| Jacob White                                | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For enthusiastically sharing his knowledge as a botanist through guided walks and plant surveys in natural areas on the Gold Coast.   |
| Nicole Taylor                              | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her devoted, skilled and consistent advocacy and action in support of the koala population of the Gold Coast.   |
| Sally Gregory                              | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her dynamic leadership over many decades in the protection of the marine environment of Tallebudgera Creek and other Gold Coast estuaries.  |
| Ann Jurrjens                               | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her unstinting service over many years to the protection of our wildlife through serving on the executive of Wildlife Queensland.   |
| Melissa Traill                             | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her outstanding involvement over many decades in the fields of environmental education, sustainability and the inclusion of First Nation's culture and for her dedicated efforts in increasing community and teacher engagement in these key focus areas.                                 |
| Justine Dillon                             | Beaded Gecko 2022        | In recognition of her passionate love for the environment of the Gold Coast which she has shared over may years as an educator, community activist and a proud spokes person for First Nations culture.   |
| Regina Kidd                                | Beaded Gecko 2022        | For her outstanding leadership over nearly two decades in providing environmental education to scout groups on the Gold Coast and inspiring their pratical involvement in caring for the environment.   |
| Professor Guy Castley                      | Golden-Tailed Gecko 2022 | For his outstanding contribution to community conservation and environmental science and education for many decades as well as playing a major role involving community and conservation groups in projects delivering conservation outcomes for threatened species and wildlife communities. |
| Jeannie Whyte                              | Golden-Tailed Gecko 2022 | For her lifelong commitment to the environment of the Gold Coast, especially through protection, revegetation and enhancement of the Loders Creek Bushland Park.  |

|                         |                          |  |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|--|
| Peter Kershaw           | Golden-Tailed Gecko 2022 | For his tireless advocacy for the protection of environmental values on the Gold Coast, especially for his pivotal role in showcasing the significant biodiversity of what is now the Currumbin EcoPark purchased by the Queensland Government for permanent protection. And for the expertise and environmental that he provides  |
| Jessica Lovegrove-Walsh | Golden-Tailed Gecko 2022 | For her outstanding leadership in protecting the values of Nerang National Park and inspiring community involvement by founding Friends of Nerang National Park. And for actively progressing the roll out of a Friends of National Parks program across the state. She is also passionately devoted to the protection of gliders species devoteing many hours to surveys and research.  |
| Karina Waterman         | Jewelled Gecko 2022      | High recognition for her dedicated and effective advocacy over many years for the protection of koala populations in the Coomera area and the broader Gold Coast. Her rigorous research, multiple submissions and lobbying activities have played a role in the acquisition of suitable land for the protection of koalas. She has been inspirational in her devotion and multi-faceted approach to the protection of this iconic species. |

|             |                   |  |
|-------------|-------------------|--|
| Jim Rebgetz | Velvet Gecko 2022 | Jim was a well-known and respected leader in the field of environmental education inspiring a deep love for the natural world in the many students that passed through Numinbah Valley Environmental Education Centre over many years. He combined citizen science and fun in a way that these children will carry with them throughout their lives. |
|-------------|-------------------|--|

|                 |                              |
|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Sheila Tierney  | Gecko President's award 2022 |
| Allan Rudd      | Gecko President's award 2022 |
| Wayne McDermott | Gecko President's award 2022 |